This is some introductory text before the counted section.

This is the block of text whose words and characters we want to count. It includes multiple sentences to demonstrate the functionality. The number of words in this block is 36 and there are 164 letters.

This is text after the counted section, which will not be included in the above count.